The Higher Education Institution exam scores are valid only for 2 years.

ANADOLUYOS exam score is only valid for the year it is taken in.

Applicants for the announced quotas are required to either take the ANADOLUYOS exam or submit internationally recognized exam results/graduation grades accepted by the University Senate and specified in the “The Directive for the Application, Admission and Enrollment of Foreign Students to the Associate/Undergraduate Programmes of Anadolu University” with decision no. 3/10 dated 27/03/2019..

Candidates who meet the application requirements will be ranked according to their scores. Applicants are placed in programs according to their preferences providing that the number of students from the same nationality in a program does not exceed 20% of the quota of that program (except for the International Open Education programs). Dual nationality holders (e.g. Turkish-Bulgarian, German-France) are required to select one nationality in filling out the “Online Application Form”. In any case of equality (tie) in ranking, first the preference order, then the high school GPA, and then the younger age will be favoured.

There will be a 20% nationality quota for the ANADOLUYOS general admission quota. No such nationality quota will be exercised for the applicants applying with diploma grade.

Candidates who cannot document the passport/ID information they provided during the application will not be allowed to register.

If the candidate who is entitled to register does not register within the announced time, or if it is found out during the control of the final registration documents that he/she did not meet the application conditions and applied with an invalid document, his/her registration will be canceled.

APPLICATIONS

Applicants who wish to take the ANADOLUYOS Exam must fill out the online “ANADOLUYOS Application Form” and submit it along with the other required documents on the University website. Applications via snail mail, email or in person will not be accepted.

If applicants do not electronically submit the “Online Application Form” and the other necessary documents, their application will not be taken into consideration and they will not be given the “ANADOLUYOS Examinee ID Document”.

The exam results of the candidates who have taken the exam without meeting the application requirements will be cancelled.

Applicants cannot change their examination center preferences after completing their application.

If the number of candidate applications for an exam center is too low, the candidates selecting this center will be transferred to another exam center, or their applications will be canceled and their fees will be paid back.

The candidate cannot take the exam in any place other than the exam room specified in the “ANADOLUYOS Examinee ID Document.”

“ANADOLUYOS Examinee ID Document” will be printed out by the examinee from Anadolu University web page.

The examinees must have the “ANADOLUYOS Examinee ID Document” and their passports/ID cards with them. The examinees must print out the “ANADOLUYOS Examinee ID Document” and bring it with them to the examination.

The examinees must complete the procedures of taking ANADOLUYOS and leaving their countries by following the regulations in their countries.

“ANADOLUYOS Examinee ID Document” is the same as preliminary acceptance. The examinees will not be sent a separate preliminary acceptance letter.

ANADOLUYOS EXAM FEE AND EXAM CENTERS

The exam fee for Turkey is 100 TL (Turkish Liras) plus the bank charges. The fee for taking the exam in an exam centre outside of Turkey is 25 Euros plus the bank charges.

Candidates' payment transactions are made through Virtual POS. The payment is nonrefundable for those who decided not to take the exam after the application or those who have not been admitted into a program.

Applicants who want to take the ANADOLUYOS Exam will pay the exam fee. Applicants who apply with a diploma or international exam score will not pay the exam fee.

EXAMS AND ASSESSMENT

ANADOLUYOS Exam has two sections with English and Turkish instructions: "General Aptitude Exam" and "Turkish Language Exam". The scores of these sections will be calculated individually and the applicants will access their printable scores as "General Aptitude Exam Score" and "Turkish Language Exam Score" from the link that will be available on the University website. The applicants are required to keep a copy of their test result. After the link is removed from the website, the University will not issue a test result document again.

The applicants must have a minimum score of 50 on the "General Aptitude Exam" and a minimum score of 60 on the "Turkish Language Exam" in order to be eligible for enrolment at Anadolu University on-campus (face-to-face) programs. The applicants must have a minimum score of 20 on the "General Aptitude Exam" and a minimum score of 60 on the "Turkish Language Exam" in order to be eligible for enrolment at Anadolu University Open Education programs.

Providing they meet the initial application requirements, applicants that apply to programs where "Pre-registration/ Special Aptitude Exams" are required will be accepted to such programs if they get a minimum of 50 on the "General Aptitude Exam," and also achieve the required score on the "Special Aptitude Exam" announced and administered by the Faculty/School of their choice.

Applicants who choose programs that require a "Special Aptitude Exam" cannot choose other programs, and applicants who choose other programs cannot choose programs that require a "Special Aptitude Exam".
