- The students admitted in a specific admission process may enroll within their own new enrollment dates. Their enrollment may not be postponed or carried over to another admission process.
- If available spaces for a program are fully filled, next admission process results will not be announced.
- Some graduate programs require ‘Written and Oral Scientific Evaluation Exam’ that is stated in ‘Special Conditions’ and both master and proficiency in fine arts programs in Fine Arts require ‘Talent Exam’. The list of candidates who are eligible to take the exam, covering all application processes, will be announced on the website of Graduate School (<https://lee.anadolu.edu.tr/>) on August 19, 2025.

APPLICATION METHOD:

- 1- International candidates will apply on 30 June - 15 August 2025 at the address "basvuruyld.anadolu.edu.tr" of Anadolu University.
- 2- In order to be able to apply, candidates need to register to the system only once using the "Sign Up" link. After that, the candidates will identify themselves by logging in with their Foreign ID Number/Passport Number/Residence Permit Number; and will be guided by the system to complete their application.
- 3- For each program, there are two different types of available spaces, T.R. and international. Therefore, candidates should choose the appropriate program in order to apply to the desired availability. For example; for the Primary Education Program, candidates must select the Primary Education (International Students) section to apply for international availability. Applications made outside of the own nationality will be considered invalid.
- 4- In any case, it is possible to apply to two different programs at the Graduate School, provided that the registration is done for only one program. However, only one application is possible for Distance Education Master's Programs (Non-Thesis).
- 5- The applications of candidates who misrepresented their information during the application, even if they are eligible for registration, will be canceled.
- 6- The result of the applications will be announced in the announcement section of the web address of the Graduate School. The candidates will be registered on the condition that they submit the documents uploaded during the application to the address of the graduate school to prove the information they stated during the application.
- 7- Applications will be evaluated by the Office for International Affairs.

The Graduate School Address - Web Address:

The Graduate School: Anadolu Üniversitesi Yunus Emre Kampüsü, Lisansüstü Eğitim Enstitüsü, 26470 Tepebaşı / ESKİŞEHİR- <https://lee.anadolu.edu.tr/>

APPLICATION AND PLACEMENT:

- 1- Graduate program applications will be evaluated based on General Grade Point Average (excluding Fine Arts programs). In the ranking of success, "General Grade Point Averages" will be evaluated out of hundred. The student must enter a score out of a hundred if the student's education system is based on hundred, and a score out of four if the system is based on four. A student who has a transcript in both a hundred-and-four-point system must enter the "General Grade Point Average" in the four-point system. For those students whose "General grade point average" is calculated according to a different base, "General grade point average" out of a hundred will be calculated by Anadolu University according to the relevant Senate decision which can be reached at <https://www.anadolu.edu.tr/ogrenci-isleri/orgun-bilgi-ve-belgeler/senato-ve-yonetim-kurulu-kararlari/turk-ve-kibris-universiteleri-not-karsiliklari> and <https://www.anadolu.edu.tr/ogrenci-isleri/orgun-bilgi-ve-belgeler/senato-ve-yonetim-kurulu-kararlari/yabanci-universiteler-not-karsiliklar>. Ranking of success in evaluation will be from the highest score to the lowest score. In the case of equality of points, the candidate with the highest grade of the bachelor's diploma will be given priority, and in case these are equal as well, the candidate with the lower age will be given priority.
- 2- At least sixty points must be obtained from the aptitude test for applications to the master's degree and art proficiency program of the Fine Arts. Examinations for majors at programs in Fine Arts are conducted as portfolio review and/or artistic work, and interviews. Further information about the time and format of the artistic work exams can be obtained from the directorate of the department. Achievement score of students in fine arts majors is calculated by taking forty percent of the average of the bachelor's and sixty percent of the "Talent Test" result. At least sixty points out of a hundred are required to be considered successful in the "Talent Test".

- 3- Candidates are required to document their foreign language score in order to be able to register for doctorate/art proficiency programs and master's degree programs taught in foreign languages.
 - a. In order to start the Ph.D./art proficiency program, candidates must obtain at least fifty-five points from the foreign language exams organized by the Assessment, Selection and Placement Center (ÖSYM) or an equivalent score from international foreign language exams whose equivalence is accepted by ÖSYM.
 - b. In order to be able to register for graduate programs in which the language of instruction is a foreign language (except for foreign language programs), candidates must obtain at least sixty points from the foreign language exams organized by ÖSYM in the foreign language they will study or an equivalent score from international foreign language exams accepted as equivalent by ÖSYM.
 - c. Candidates applying to master's and doctorate degrees whose fields of discipline are foreign languages must have a score of at least eighty in the foreign language they will study or an equivalent score from international foreign language exams whose equivalence is accepted by ÖSYM.
- 4- Candidates applying for graduate programs must also meet the requirements specified in the 'Special Conditions' of the program applied for, if any, other than the general requirements (such as graduation from the relevant program, language requirement, etc.).
- 5- In order for international candidates, accepted to programs whose language of instruction is Turkish, to start the program; as Türkçe Öğretim Merkezi (TÖMER) and European Language Portfolio (ELP) level equivalent; they must either provide documents that certify that they have received a score at the (C1) level or score at least seventy out of a hundred points from the “Turkish Proficiency Exam” to be held by Anadolu TÖMER. Foreign nationals who have graduated from undergraduate programs in which the language of instruction is Turkish are considered sufficient. Candidates who are accepted to the program but cannot achieve Turkish language proficiency receive Turkish education at Anadolu TÖMER in accordance with the Principles of International Student Admission to Anadolu University Graduate Programs accepted by the Anadolu University Senate.
